REPORTS TO WAR COUNCIL

DEMOLITION, BLOCKADE AND SIZE OF ARMIES OF OCCUPATION CONSIDERED.

By the Associated Press

PARIS, Feb. 8.—Although official decisions went over until tomorrow many reports were made to the supreme war council today by military high commands on subjects of demobilization and relative forces of the powers to be maintained in occupied regions.

The Versailles military council also submitted a report as to military forces available for the disturbed regions of Turkey. The commission on the blockade presented a report favoring lightening of the restrictions in the Mediterranean and Adriatic. A tendency was evident to impose further drastic terms on Germany for the third armistice renewal, but no decision was reached today.

Agreement on League of Nations.

PARIS, Feb. 8.—The society of nations commission reached a substantial agreement on the chief points discussed last night according to an official statement today.

HELD ON CHARGE OF HIGHWAY ROBBERY

The preliminary trial of Harry Williams (white), and Tillie Price (colored), was held in the justice court. They were charged with highway robbery, alleged to have taken $30 and a gold watch off of Cornelius Nelson. The alleged robbery is said to have taken place in the negro section of the city. Nelson stated that as he came out a door of one of the houses Williams told him to "stick 'em up." Williams was armed with a butcher knife. Williams and Price were placed in jail on account of default of bond, which was $1,000.

SETTLEMENT REACHED IN BRITISH STRIKE

By the Associated Press

LONDON, Feb. 8.—Sir Albert Stanley, president of the board of trade, announced at 2:20 o'clock this morning that an agreement with union executives had been reached and railway service will be resumed as soon as possible. Acting Secretary Hudo of the unions subsequently declared he was satisfied with the agreement and expected the tube to be operating normally by noon today.

LIBERTY.
Last appearance of Hobson's Musical Comedy Co. in the best entertainment of the week. The picture program presents the sixth episode of The Lure of the Circus, the Screen Magazine and the comedy, The Cabbage Queen.

Don't Tease Child.

Teasing has ruined the disposition of many a child. The parents are not likely to be guilty of such conduct, but older children in the family, or some other relative, may make the child's life utterly miserable by constant teasing. A thoughtful adult, intending to be playful, will keep a child struggling for some object, almost allowing him to get it over and over again, only to thwart the child's purpose, and so causing a wearing irritation.

The Hornpipe.

The "hornpipe" is an old English dance peculiar to England. In fact, one might almost say it was the chief dance of the British sailor, and is still. Modern "hornpipes" are in common time and of a more lively character than the ancient form. It is supposed to have received its name from the instrument which was played during its performance.

Match Scratcher.

Save the strip of sandpaper that comes on the match boxes and tack on jamb of door with tiny Swede tacks; or strips of sandpaper may be cut five inches long and three-eighths inch wide. Place a tack at each end and one in the middle. This will not interfere with opening and closing of door, and will save steps in running back to get another match.

I. W. W. TAKING HAND IN MONTANA. SYMPATHETIC STRIKE IN NEW YORK.

By the Associated Press

BUTTE, Mont., Feb. 8.—Following meetings called by local industrial workers of the world 100 striking miners, some of them, armed, this morning turned back men starting to work, practically suspending mining in this district.

Sympathetic Strike Called.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Feb. 8.—Union brick layers and hoisting engine men employed in various cities by the building trades employers association will be called out on a sympathetic strike Monday morning according to announcement by the president of the carpenters and joiners united brotherhood, William L. Hutcheson. The men will strike in sympathy with the carpenters for wage increase.

RAPID DISCHARGE OF ARMY MEN

GEN. MARCH SAYS TOTAL TO DATE NEARLY MILLION AND A HALF.

By the Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—General March announced today that demobilization in the United States now on "the home stretch" up to yesterday reached 67,038 officers and 1,033,812 men discharged with a total ordered home for discharge reaching 1,440,000. An increase in the monthly total brought home is expected to result in transforming many cargo ships to transports, fifty one having been ordered converted recently. Plans for divisional parades in home cities have been upset, March said, by the irregular flow of troops.

MANY MISSING IN ACTION LOCATED

By the Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Last week's casualty report showing 10,000 of the American expeditionary force missing in action has been corrected to make a total of 7,783 in a report by General Pershing to the war department.

Pershing's information showed missing in action figures are being reduced about 200 daily as a result of checking of records in the central records office in France.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS ALMOST COMPLETE

By the Associated Press

PARIS, Feb. 8.—The peace conference society of nations commission expects to finish its work on the draft of the project at a session beginning at 10:30 a. m. today. At a long session last night the committee completed two-thirds of its work.

Allatross Wonderful Flyer.

The albatross spends its life, with the exception of a few weeks given each year to nesting, entirely at sea, and is on the wing practically all the time. Furthermore, it does not progress by flapping its wings, as most birds do, but seems to soar at will, rarely, if ever, giving a stroke of the wing, seeming to need no impetus. At nesting time, which is early in the year, the albatross repairs to an isolated island, such as one of the Crozet islands, in the southern Indian ocean, or Tristan da Cunha, in the South Atlantic ocean.

Famous Castle of Durnstein.

The ragged towers of the castle of Durnstein, in which Richard of England was imprisoned, still rise by the Danube, and there is a Napoleonic legend that, as the French emperor rode by in his Wagram campaign, he pointed to them with horror as a reminder of a barbarous incident. Seemingly his reverie was untroubled by any prevision of the far harder fate in store for him.

Good Roads Boosters are always optimists. A Good Roads man and a grouchy can't live in the same skin. They are unselfish public benefactors. —Roff Eagle.

An exchange, aptly remarks: We have seen a few so-called business men who were satisfied with the population of their community—didn't want any more people—didn't want any more trade; didn't want any more money. These men were dead and didn't know it. Our town will be just as big as our ambition. It will be as progressive as we are, and the spirit of population we attract will be of the same kind of our own spirit. You never find a live person under a slab in the graveyard. Towns are but collections of people and enterprises from which the people live.

Biblical "Prophets." The numerous "prophets" of the Bible were not persons who foretold the future, but in the original the word means story writer. It will be found by a short examination that this is true.

The "Seven Seas." The phrase "seven seas" is just a general reference to the ocean. A man said to have traveled the "seven seas" is one who has been nuch on the waters of the globe.

STUPIDITY FOR TWO

By IMES MACDONALD.

(Copyright, 1918, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Billy Warden sat on the veranda rail half oblivious to the chatter of the company about him until Edna Barnes their charming hostess, stood beside him.

"Do come in and sing something, Billy," she whispered. "I'm afraid the evening's beginning to drag."

Warden arose dutifully and followed her into the house toward the piano while she announced from the door; "Come on everybody, Billy's going to sing."

And everybody trailed into the room where Billy was already running over the piano keys aimlessly.

"What'll you have?" he asked over his shoulder to the gay assemblage. "Something sad—something mushy—or something frivolous?"

"Something frivolous!" was the unanimous request.

So Billy's fingers strayed into a syncopating melody as he threw back his blond head and sang in his rollicking baritone:

In a certain situation
While engaged in a flirtation,
When she asks you if forever
You will love her—

Don't fall in consternation
For that maiden's approbation,
Nor make promise that you'll never
Love another.

By judicious implication
And a little coquetry,
Break it gently and be clever—
Love the girl, but not forever.

For forever is a long, long time!

"Forever is a long, long time!" applauded one of the men. "Right you are, Billy!"

A little later after he had managed to break away from the piano, Edna Barnes caught him in the hall and faced him accusingly.

"A man of your talent ought to be ashamed to have such a frivolous philosophy, Billy Warden," she said impatiently.

Billy was bland and his eye was innocent.

"Since that heartless song of yours, Emily Wayne has been out in a dark corner of the veranda weeping her eyes out," she chided.

"I never made love to Emily Wayne in my life!" he protested.

"You make love to every woman you meet—with your eyes, Billy," she accused.

"I don't!" denied Billy rudely.

"You do, too," she insisted. "You even make love to me that way—you're doing it now!"

For an instant his serious glance sought hers as she stood there looking up at him. "This is a grand little old life—not!" he said, with a pathetic grin. "Emily Wayne loves me—I love you—you love Jim Bradley—and Jim loves Emily. Outside of that we're all as happy as a bunch of pickpockets at a prison wardens' convention." And he moved off gloomily toward the veranda in search of the grieving Emily, while Edna watched him go with a perplexed little smile on her lips.

But he did not find Emily, although he did find Jim Bradley, smoking moodily.

"Jim," said Billy, "what we want in this world don't amount to much, but what the women want—that's different! Now, I want Edna, and you want Emily—but women being contrary, Edna wants you, and Emily wants me. Now, it's up to us to make them happy, so the only thing to do is for you to go ahead and marry Edna and I'll go and find Emily and fix it up with her—"

"But I don't want Edna," protested Jim violently, "and I'll be damned if I'll stand your marrying Emily. I want her myself."

"Why, you big chunk! I don't want her—wouldn't have her on a bet. But we've got a chance to make the two finest girls in the world happy by a little sacrifice on our part."

Finally, after much persuasion, Jim agreed, but when he decoyed Edna out onto the lawn under the trees, she was thunderstruck at his proposal.

"Why, Jim," she said, "I like you better than any man I know—except one—and he is so stupid I guess I'll have to propose to him myself."

But Billy was not so easily discouraged. "You see, it's like this, Emily. I've been thinking about marrying you for a—some time—and we might just as well go ahead and have it over with."

"Billy," laughed Emily, "you remind me of the Charge of the Light Brigade, but even so, I might marry you if it weren't for the fact I'm in love with somebody else."

"Well," said Jim grouchily, as the two of them conferred by the front steps, "your dope was all wrong. And we're both out of it. Emily, it seems loves somebody else, but it isn't me—and Edna loves somebody else, but it isn't you. There's no eternal triangle to this tragedy. It's more like a hollow square."

"I guess we have teased them enough," came in Emily's amused voice. "but can you imagine two grown men being so stupid?"

"No, I can't; but then," said the practical Edna, "stupid men make the best husbands."

Whereat Billy looked at Jim and Jim looked at Billy. Then with one and the same impulse they charged on those two defenseless maidens with effective suddenness.

And an instant later Emily was murmuring: "I thought you'd know it was a joke." While the practical Edna was pleading: "Forever isn't a long, long time—is it, Billy?"

"Not for a stupid husband," said Billy blandly.

GLAD TO TESTIFY

Says Watoga Lady, "As To What Cardui Has Done For Me, So As To Help Others."

Watoga, W. Va.—Mrs. S. W. Gladwell, of this town, says: "When about 15 years of age, I suffered greatly. Sometimes would go a month or two, and I had terrible headache, backache, and bearing-down pains, and would just drag and had no appetite. Then . . . it would last . . . two weeks, and was so weakening, and my health was awful."

My mother bought me a bottle of Cardui, and I began to improve after taking the first bottle, so kept it up till I took three . . . I gained, and was well and strong, and I owe it all to Cardui.

I am married now and have 3 children . . . Have never had to have a doctor for female trouble, and just resort to Cardui if I need a tonic. I am glad to testify to what it has done for me, so as to help others."

If you are nervous or weak, have headaches, backaches, or any of the other ailments so common to women, why not give Cardui a trial? Recommended by many physicians. In use over 40 years. Begin taking Cardui today. It may be the very medicine you need.

SECOND SEMESTER OF SCHOOLS OPENS MONDAY

The second semester of the public schools opens Monday morning, February 10th. All children who have not enrolled should do so Monday. All classes in the grades will start new, giving those who have not entered an opportunity to start at the beginning of the semester work. It will be necessary for those starting Monday to come every day for the remainder of the school year to comply with the requirements of the compulsory school law. This applies to some who have already entered but have been very irregular in attendance. The compulsory school law requires that children attend two thirds of the school term and provides a penalty for every day below that minimum. The law requires me to check up on the attendance of all children and report such as are not requiring with its requirements. For the sake of your children see that they attend school regularly.

Chipmunk in Boston Park Showed Every Determination of Ending Life of That Turtle.

A few days ago a chipmunk was seen drinking at the pond in the Boston Public garden. He may have been an escaped pet from a nearby house; or possibly turned loose by some boy who had tired of his pet.

While the chipmunk was drinking a turtle rose to the surface, swam to the curbing and climbed up on the stone to sun himself. The chipmunk watched the turtle for a second, then darted at it fiercely.

The turtle quickly drew in his head; and the chipmunk ran to the turtle's rear and bit at the tail, which the turtle quickly folded in out of the way.

The little chipmunk then began biting at the shell of the turtle, and he tried to get in between the two layers of shell in order to find a vital spot where he could bite the turtle.

Finally a man interfered, and picked up the turtle to throw it into the water; and even then the chipmunk jumped up in the air and tried to reach it. When the turtle was thrown into the lake, the chipmunk ran chattering to the water's edge; and then scampered up into a tree.

HOW CHILL HURTS HEALTH.

Chilling the body reduces the power of protection against bacteria. There are certain cells in the body which are known as phagocytes. When they come in contact with bacteria they surround, devour and digest them. If the temperature of the body be abnormally reduced the phagocytes are not so active. This partially explains why chilling of the body may be followed by an attack of pneumonia. The cold does not produce pneumonia; no more than harrowing a field produces a crop of corn or wheat. Harrowing the field prepares it for the growth of planted seed; chilling the body prepares it for developing the planted germs. It is wrong to speak of the cold air treatment of pneumonia. Plenty of fresh air, less laden with germs and the poisons eliminated from the body, helps to maintain the fighting efficiency of the body, provided that the body be kept warm.—Illinois Health News.

NEGLIGIBLE.

"Have all the men in Crimsoir Gulch quit drinking?"

"Not all," answered Three Finger Sam. "But accordin' to the doctors those who cling to the bootleg stuff aren't goin' to last long enough to be worth counting."

WHY THEY LASTED.

"I am surprised to see you have such a quantity of preserves left over from last year."

"Nobody could get the lids off," explained the housewife briefly.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

CONDENSED POTENCY.

"Why does the bootlegger charge so much for his liquor?"

"I don't know," replied Uncle Bill Bottletop, "unless it's because it contains so much more headache per ounce than the ordinary kind."

FATHER'S TASK.

Mother—Well, dear, did you see daddy feed the furnace?

Five-Year-Old (excitedly)—Oh yes, mummy! And it was terrible hungry; he had to give it four helpings.—Buffalo Express.

Forty Five Years of Success The astonishing Record of PERUNA

Not a cure-all, but a rational remedy for catarrh and all inflammation and congestion of the mucous membranes.

Catarrh attacks the mucous linings, in any organ, in any part of the body. It is not, as some imagine, confined to the nose and throat, although nasal catarrh is the most common form and afflicts many people.

Unchecked catarrh soon breaks down the tissue and destroys the organs or part. Evidence of the ravages of catarrh are all around us. Without desire to frighten anyone, we say: "Guard yourself against catarrh as you would against the direst plague. Fortify your system. Take Peruna."

INSPIRING WORDS FOR THE SICK FROM THOSE WHO KNOW.

A Good Medicine in the Family.
I had a bad case of LaGrippe and could get no relief. Peruna cured me. It is a fine medicine. We often use it in the family and find it good.

A "Bull."

One evening, after the flies had been unusually troublesome, an Irish mistress spread insect powder round the windows and other places in the kitchen where the flies congregated. In the morning she asked the servant girl if there was not a great many dead flies in the kitchen. "Yes, there are, mum," replied the maid. "The room's alive with them!"

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

Hall's Catarrh Cure has been taken by catarrh sufferers for the past thirty-five years, and has become known as the most reliable remedy for Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces, expelling the poison from the blood and healing the diseased portions.

After you have taken Hall's Catarrh Cure for a short time you will see a great improvement in your general health. Start taking Hall's Catarrh Cure at once and get rid of catarrh. Send for testimonials, free.

BACK LIKE A BOARD? IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

There's no use suffering from the awful agony of lame back. Don't wait till it "passes off." It only comes back. Find the cause and stop it. Diseased conditions of kidneys are usually indicated by stiff lame backs and other wrenching pains, which are nature's signals for help!

Here's the remedy. When you feel the first twinges of pain or experience any of these symptoms, get busy at once. Go to your druggist and get a box of the pure, original GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules, imported fresh every month from the laboratories in Haarlem, Holland. Pleasant and easy to take, they instantly attack the poisonous germs clogging your system and bring quick relief. For over two hundred years they have been helping the sick. Why not try them? Sold everywhere by reliable druggists in sealed packages. Three sizes. Money back if they do not help you. Ask for "GOLD MEDAL" and be sure the name "GOLD MEDAL" is on the box.

Eraser Hint.

When the eraser becomes well worn it is apt to smudge the paper when it is used to erase a letter. To avoid this, simply rub a little chalk on the edge of the eraser and no smudge will occur; and the erasure of the letter will be done much more quickly as well as more neatly.

Kidney disorders cause much distress of mind and body. Such ailments should not be neglected because they lead to diseases that are dangerous. Prickly Ash Bitters is a fine kidney tonic. It strengthens the kidneys and purifies the stomach and bowels. Price $1.25 per bottle.—Gwin & Mays Drug Company, Special Agents.

Broadway Church of Christ
(First Christian Church)
Bible School Sunday morning at 9:45. A progressive school. A welcome awaits all who come.
Morning worship at eleven o'clock.

This will be a very important service. Besides the Lord's Supper, which is the center of worship, the minister will give the final message in preparation for the Every Member Canvass. At the close of the hour the canvassers will be commissioned by the minister. Charts will be used in connection with the morning message.

The Every Member Canvass will be put on in the afternoon. About thirty men will participate in this. The year's work depends for its success in great measure on the success of this canvass. All members not engaged in the canvass are requested to remain at home in the afternoon to receive the canvassers.

The Christian Endeavor Society will meet at 6:30. This is one of the liveliest societies in the city. Visitors are always welcome.

At the evening church hour a report will be made of the Every Member Canvass. Following this there will be a short song and prayer service after which a set of some seventy-five missionary slides will be shown. These will prove very interesting. The public is cordially invited.—C. V. Dunn, Minister.

First Presbyterian Church.
Corner S. Broadway, E. Fourteenth.
Junior Christian Endeavor at 9:00 A. M.
Intermediate Christian Endeavor at 9:00 A. M. Miss Mollie Russell, Supt.

Morning worship at 11 o'clock. At this service reports will be given from the New Era Conference at Oklahoma City and these will doubtless prove not only interesting but profitable to all the members of the church. All are urged to be present.

Senior Christian Endeavor at 6:30 P. M. with topic for discussion, "I Will." Heb. 10:5-9-25 is the Scripture reference. Robert Chaffin, Leader.

Evening service at 7:30 with sermon by the pastor. Subject "The Eternal Decision."
The Ladies' Auxiliary will meet in missionary session Monday at 3 p. m. at the church.
Prayer service Wednesday at 7:30 P. M. continuing the "Study of the Book of Romans."

There is a cordial welcome for you in all these services. May we expect you to worship with us. Strangers always feel at home here.—George Wesley Beck, Minister. Residence 107 E. 14th. Telephone 232.

Rev. Franklin Davis, Rector.
Services may be expected in this church tomorrow at the following hours:
Sunday School at 9:45 a. m.
Morning services at 11 o'clock.
It is especially hoped that a full congregation may be present at this service to participate in the special offering to be made for the War Commission of the Episcopal church. Our apportionment or quota is $15.00. Let's go over the top at this time for the boys' sake.

The public is cordially invited and assured a warm welcome, as ever, at the little church. The churches need the help of every man who cares for the things worth while—if they are to meet adequately the crying needs of worthy adjustments in life and in society. Come.

100,000 Prescriptions Were Filled Before "40" Was Discovered.

J. C. Mendenhall, Evansville, Ind., spent 40 years in the drug business, compounded over 100,000 prescriptions from physicians educated in Europe and America before "Number 40 For The Blood" was discovered; the greatest specific for all blood diseases. Successfully employed in diseases of the glandular system, in blood poison, mercurial and lead poisoning, chronic rheumatism, catarrh, constipation, hepatic congestions, dyspepsia and stomach troubles, sores, ulcers, nodes, tumors and scrofulous swellings that have withstood all other treatment yield to "No. 40."—Sold by Gwin & Mays Drug Company.

Household Work Savers.
Use plenty of newspapers about the kitchen, spreading them on the floor when anything is likely to spatter. It is easier to gather them up than to clean up. If there is a kitchen range not in use in the summer time it is well to prevent dampness and rust. If the kitchen has but a gas range, then a good-sized waste basket should be kept and the papers disposed of in whatever way is best.

Jest and Joke.
A joke is often rougher and less delicate than a jest, as a practical joke, but jest often suggests more of lightness or scoffing than a joke, as to turn everything into jest. Joke is the word to use where action is implied, while jest is generally applied to something said.

Novel Experiences.
Did you ever chance to see a sword fish, a bottle fly, a stone fence, a cat nip, a bed spring, a mill race, corn prick up its ears or a potato wipe its eyes? Or have you ever had the novel experience of hearing a birch bark, a pillow tick, or a tree top hum? asks Gas Logie.

NEWS ITEMS FROM THE ROFF EAGLE

Garland Morton is now handing out the filthy lucre at the F. & M. Bank succeeding J. B. Craig, former assistant cashier of that institution.

Miss Ruth Smith, who teaches school near Jesse, came in Friday for a short visit with homefolks. She has been unable to return to date on account of the bad roads since the rain.

Joe L. Thomas and wife left Thursday for Mineral Wells, Texas, where they go to take advantage of the health giving qualities to be found in the water there. They expect to return sometime in March.

Joe L. Thomas, A. F. Bickel, J. R. Womack, Geo. W. Hicks and Col. E. C. Mitchell were among those who attended the Good Roads meeting at Ada Wednesday.

Joe Mulder received his discharge from military service at Camp Pike this week and arrived home Tuesday night and is busily engaged in helping entertain a fine new girl who took up her abode in the Mulder home last week.

J. B. Craig and family left Sunday for Collinsville where J. B. has accepted a position with the Pierce Oil Co. We regret to note their departure but wish them prosperity and contentment in their new surroundings.

Harry Burden who has spent the past four years in the navy and who had been visiting friends and relatives here, left Sunday for New York where he will enter the navy electrical school. He was accompanied as far as Ada by his sister, Miss Sue.

Among the many contemplated improvements for Roff during the present year is an ice plant, steam laundry, brick hotel and a creamery. Roff has reached a point in her growth where the conveniences are absolutely necessary and those who are interested in the welfare of the town are quietly working to the end that these conveniences be provided at an early day.

County Farm Demonstrator Hill, while in town Tuesday, paid our office a pleasant call. He tells us he is still interested in and encouraging the terracing of farm land and says that while there are some 2,000 acres terraced in the vicinity of Roff, there are yet many valuable acres lying idle and going to waste for the lack of proper attention. However, there is quite a lot of this work going on among our farmers at present J. D. Hudson, J. W. Taylor, J. T. Webb, Morris Bros. and J. W. Siner being among our thirty farmers who are adding to the value of their land by devoting a little time and trouble to it.

VERNON DALHART

TO APPEAR HERE.

Vernon Dalhart, the popular lyric tenor, will be heard in a unique recital at the Methodist church on the evening of the 25th of this month.

Mr. Dalhart is one of the growing body of splendid singers who boasts of his American birth and training. Until he was sixteen, Mr. Dalhart, lived and worked on a Texas cattle ranch. He then went to Dallas to work in a hardware store where he was overheard singing by a vocal teacher. He was induced to cultivate the gift that nature gave him, and after extensive study in New York, he made his debut in "The Girl of the Golden West." He created such a favorable impression that he was engaged to sing the leading role in the light opera "Pinafore" at the New York Hippodrome. There are few singers of either sex who can sing the charming old Southern melodies as well as Mr. Dalhart.

Admittance to the recital will be by card only. Adv.

ADA BOYS READY FOR GAME WITH FRANCIS

Charlie Rayburn's high school lads promise a surprise for the basketball fans at the Normal tonight. The Ada boys have been putting in good time training for the last two or three weeks and believe they can give Francis a game to be remembered. Roach and Allen will start as forward; Crawford at center; and Kerr and Evans at guard. Bryant and McKeown are out on account of sickness. Fentem, Cuning and Neely make a set of substitutes to take care of an emergency.

Francis has won games throughout the season, defeating practically every team in this part of the state. The Ada boys are anxious to stop this string of victories.

Miss Bess Barrow returned today from Ravia where she has been visiting friends, and where she gave a recital last night. As a reader Miss Barrow is one of the best in Oklahoma and other towns will ask for her services as her talent becomes recognized. She is an appreciated addition to art circles in Ada.

NORMAL NOTES.

Oma Land, who has been absent from school the past two weeks, is reported much better and will be able to return to school soon.

Edna Rayburn, who is teaching at Pitzhugh, was in school today. Zala Guin is absent from school on account of illness.

The basketball game last night between the Roff high school and East Central resulted in a victory for the visitors, score 23 to 11.

The domestic art classes who are now studying textiles, made a trip to the gin and the compress last week, where they received some valuable information. They take this opportunity to express their appreciation for the courteous treatment accorded to them at both places.

The girls' chorus is busy practicing regularly for the "Pirates of Penzance" which will be given in the near future.

The home economics club met in the reception room last Wednesday at 4 p. m. The thing of most interest at this meeting was the reading of two letters that had been received from the fatherless child of France, adopted by the club. The letters were written in French, and were well written for a child of ten. The girls were delighted to receive her photograph also. The regular club program follows:

Piano Solo—Clarice Cartwright. Paper, "The Effects of Undernutrition."—Pearl Wilmoth. Paper, "Vitamines."—Beulah Klutts.

Vocal Solo—Ethel Wood. Vocal Solo—Esther Wood. Mrs. Holmes, sponsor of the senior class, was presented a handsome box of stationery by the members of the class, yesterday, it being the first anniversary of her marriage. Mr. Holmes is now in Germany but hopes to be home sometime during the summer.

President Gordon made a business trip to Oklahoma City yesterday but returned last night.

Mr. Stauffer was absent from the school today on account of the flu. Mr. Pratt was absent because of illness in his family. Mr. Molloy and family are improving, but rather slowly.

Strength of Character.

Strength of character is not mere strength of feeling; it is the resolute restraint of strong feeling. It is unyielding resistance to whatever would discontent us from without or unsettle us from within.—Dickens.

FUEL ADMINISTRATION WINDING UP AFFAIRS

All county and local fuel administrators will cease their activities on February 15, according to instructions sent out by P. A. Norris, federal fuel administrator for this state. The entire fuel organization is being demobilized as rapidly as possible, and Mr. Norris has only a skeleton of his former organization. The following letter has been sent to those who have served their counties and communities during the stringent war times:

The Government's need for your services will have ended by February 15 and I am pleased to relieve you of your responsibilities on that date. Please fill out and sign the enclosed formal release blank, Form 1-28, and return to us immediately after February 15. As there may be need for your services any time before February 15, do not send in the release before that date.

Very few of you have many records. The correspondence you have in your files, the orders issued by yourself and such other records as are not already in the hands of this administration or in the Washington office, you will please ship direct to Custodian of Records, United States Fuel Administration, Washington, D. C. The mimeographed and printed circulars sent out from this office or from the Washington office may be destroyed. Send to this office and to the Custodian of Records a full report of the contents of the bundles you forward. Plainly designate on your bundles your own name, county and town and state. Send by Parcel Post, franked. The few letter heads and envelopes you now have in your possession you may consider waste.

I want to take this opportunity of thanking you in behalf of the United States Fuel Administration for the valuable services you have rendered to your state and country while the war was in progress and since it has closed. I feel that the people of this state have nothing to complain of, so far as the fuel is concerned, and you are responsible for such a condition. The rules and regulations of the Administration in Oklahoma have been formulated mainly upon the advice of the County and Local Administrators, and your judgment has proved correct.

When the final history of the war is written, I feel that you men, who have sacrificed business, money and time, to help keep up the morale of the American people, will receive due recognition and your services will be rewarded by the good will of your fellow citizens.

The war has been won. I congratulate you on having had an opportunity to help in winning it.

DAVIS'S ROFF LADS DEFEAT NORMALITES

The East Central cagers had a reversal of form last evening, and the strong Roff team ran away with the game, 23 to 11. During the last of the game, the visitors shot goals freely. George Washington, who has starred in track meets in this county, was the sensation of the game. His form in basketball is as good as any ever seen on the local court.

The local lads started the game as though they would win. They easily had the advantage in the first half, keeping the ball in their possession most of the time and making seven points while their opponents were able to score only four. It was in the last half that the Roff youngsters did the real work, making a total of 19 points while Wilson's proteges were able to get only four more.

The Roff team is well trained and is composed of five brilliant athletes. Coach Davis has been successful in the year's playing, taking many of the games and playing most of the strong teams in this part of the state.

Poor handling of the ball and nervousness at the basket were mainly responsible for the poor showing of the East Centralites. For them, Wimbish at forward did some very commendable work while Dorsey at guard did great work in holding down the visitors' score. For Roff, Washington and Dixon were probably the best. Tolliver, member of the East Central S. A. T. C. last fall and of the East Central football team, played center for Roff and did some good work.

Your Eyes on the Goal.

The runner who looks over his shoulder to see whether his rival is gaining on him, is pretty sure to lose the race. Keep your eye on the goal. The backward look means lost time, whatever sort of race you are running. The things behind you do not matter. All that concerns you is on ahead.

ink stains.

To remove black ink stains, the article should be washed immediately in several waters and then in milk, letting it soak in the milk for several hours; the stain will disappear. Washing the article immediately in vinegar and water; and then in soap and water, will remove all ordinary ink stains.

Wolves:

Tempering the wind to the shorn wolf is not scriptural, not even proverbial doctrine. Let any reader make the application for himself.—Brooklyn Eagle.

NEW ERA MEETING AT OKLAHOMA CITY

President J. M. Gordon has just returned from Oklahoma City where he attended a great district conference of the Presbyterian New Era Movement.

"It was an inspiring event," he told the reporter, "and the message I bring back home is sure to accomplish much good for our town."

"Is the New Era Movement designed to make Presbyterians of everybody?"

"Not at all. The New Era Movement is simply a real, live, united movement of all the 1,631,748 Presbyterian communicants in the United States towards accomplishing the tremendous task confronting the church as a result of the world war."

"What is that task?"

"The betterment of mankind in ways that the world war has as yet failed to accomplish. The war was fought for Christian ideals. Now that the war is won, it is the church's duty to carry out these ideals to their ultimate fulfillment."

"What practical steps will the Presbyterians take?"

"As a sample of the church's new conception of its relation to world affairs, the Presbyterians will spend $500,000 for the relief of stricken Protestant churches in the war zone, and $500,000 on returning soldiers and sailors who went to the war from Presbyterian homes. They plan to utilize the resources within the church to increase by 100% their expenditures for educational, benevolent and missionary work. They propose to spend $13,000,000 this year and perhaps $75,000,000 in five years. The Presbyterians believe that in five years the New Era Movement can accomplish more for humanity than the war accomplished with all its sacrifice. And they are marshaling all their forces as comrades of The New Era for a worldwide crusade under the banner of their Prince of Peace."

"Is the church doing anything for its ministers?"

"Yes. It plans to increase underpaid pastors' salaries $1,000,000 this year. The $13,000,000 for the Church Boards is only a portion of the church expense. The total budget for this year will really be $40,000,000, as $27,000,000 will be required for local church expenses."

"How will our town benefit by this New Era Movement?"

"Through the re-creation of the spirit of fellowship and brotherhood among our own people, through the thinking by each individual of his personal duty in community terms, through the solving of such local neighborhood and social problems as confront us, through the Christianizing of the community. The New Era Movement is essentially a spiritual force, cultivating personal and home virtues, reviving the family altar, evangelizing the people, spreading the Gospel through the community, and administering practical aid and comfort to those in need or distress."

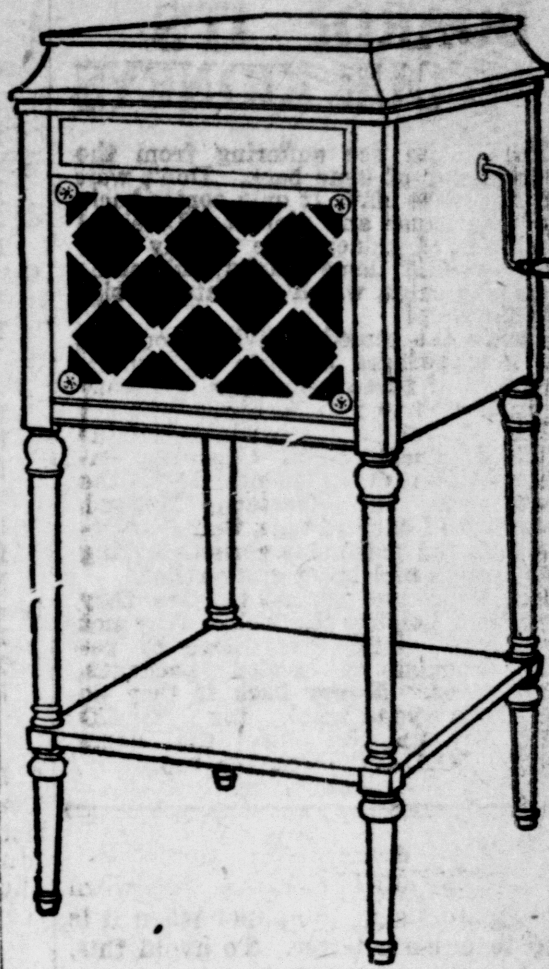

"Has not the church always considered these things its duty?"

"The church has been, like the American people, a giant not exerting its full power. The war woke up America. The New Era Movement is the resistless force of the re-awakened church to win the world for Christ."

THE VOICE
By HELENA M. KENNEY.

The train rolled slowly out of the station, leaving a girl standing on the platform. Nellie Windsor was fifteen years old. Her mother and father were dead and she had no one but Uncle Jo and Aunt Betty. Uncle Jo had written her to come and live with him—and here she was. It was fully ten minutes before Uncle Jo came, and when he did he gave her a hearty kiss and lifted her into the buggy and off they went. Arriving at the farm, she found Aunt Betty waiting on the porch for her, and such a dear old lady she was. It was then 3:30 o'clock, and the rest of the afternoon was spent in unpacking her clothes and learning the rounds of the house. After supper she went directly to bed, because she was tired from her long journey.

The next afternoon she wandered around, picking flowers, chasing butterflies, and, gathering an apron full of apples, she went down to the little brook. It was nice and cool and she was enjoying herself when—"Hello," said a voice. She looked up, but saw no one.

"I say, hullo," again came the voice; this time it seemed to come from the tree that was across the brook.

"Hullo, yourself," replied Nellie. "Where are you?"

"Up here in the tree," said the voice. "Come down," she said.

"Nope," answered the voice. No amount of teasing would make the voice come down. It was getting late, so Nellie said: "If I come here tomorrow will you let me see who you are?"

"Maybe," replied the voice. So Nellie scampered up the hill and home. But she was not to see the owner of the voice tomorrow, for when she got up the next morning, it was raining.

Uncle Jo came in at dinner time with an invitation for Nellie to spend the afternoon with the Browns, who lived across the field. Slowly she went upstairs to dress, sorry because she could not go down to the brook, but maybe it would be there some other time; so with this happy thought in mind she was soon ready, and Uncle Jo took her over to the Browns. She was rather shy, being among strangers, but Mrs. Brown soon put her at ease.

Molly Brown was Nellie's age, and they took to each other right away. While they were sitting, talking about nothing in particular, the doorbell rang and Molly's mother went and admitted five young people who had come to spend the afternoon. Soon a boy about a year older than herself came in and was introduced as Billy Brown.

What a good time she had, and what nice girls and boys they were! But Billy—where had she heard that voice? The afternoon passed all too quickly, and when the guests rose to go, Mrs. Brown shook hands with them all, and so did Molly and Billy. When Nellie arrived home she could not help thinking what a nice boy Billy was, and she blushed when she thought how he had given her hand a tiny, unnecessary squeeze.

The days that followed were the happiest ones she had ever had. Long rambles with Molly and the Tucker twins, picnics, and often she would go for long walks with Billy. She liked Billy very much and Billy liked Nellie. But she did not forget the voice. Every day she would go down to the brook and talk and talk with it. She would tell it of the nice times she was having, and went so far as to tell it of Billy. Thus two weeks passed on and Nellie thought she was never going to see the voice, when one day the voice told her that she would see it tomorrow, sure. To be sure, Nellie was there at the appointed time, and the voice said: "If I come down, will you promise to give me one thing?"

Wondering what it could be, but curious to see the voice, as she had called it, she readily said, "Yes." It slid down the tree and there stood—Billy!

"You—you—?" she gasped. Billy smiled and said, "Your promise." She was so surprised she did not know what to say. At length she said, "What do you want?"

"A kiss," he replied.

"Oh—h!" and she turned to flee up the hill, but Billy like a flash caught her. It was useless for her to try to get away, even if she wanted to. (Copyright, 1913, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Be a Philosopher.
If you can't have what you want, just make up your mind that you don't want it. Then the matter will cease to bother you and you will be as happy as a lark. Maybe if you got what you wanted, it would only be to discover that you really didn't want it, after all. Many a man regrets that he didn't marry a certain old sweetheart until some day he sees her again, and then all his regrets disappear. The thing is to be satisfied with the situation as it is. When you can do that you are a philosopher as great as Socrates or any of the rest of them ever were.

The Bloodstone.
The bloodstone is a variety of hematite having a finely fibrous structure and a reniform surface. The color varies from dark steel-gray to blood-red. It was extensively employed in ancient times, many of the Babylonian and Egyptian intaglios being in this material. Now it is much less used, except for rings and as a polish for other stones and metals. There is also a variety of quartz having a greenish base, with small spots of red Jasper, looking like drops of blood, scattered through it. This kind of bloodstone is also called heliotrope.

Edible Alarm Clock.
It was late in the afternoon when the Scotch minister arrived at the farmhouse. The housewife suggested that perhaps he would like a cup of tea before he began the "exercises."

"Na, na," said he, "I aye tak my tea better when my work is done. You can put the pan on and leave the door ajar, an' I'll draw to a close in the prayer when I hear the haam fizzin'."

JAMES WOOD.
Mr. Jackson James and Miss Ethel Wood were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of J. A. Islinger and wife on East Eighth St., Rev. G. W. Beck officiating.

Both of the contracting parties are well known and the News joins their host of friends in wishing them a happy and prosperous life together.

Monday morning's express brought Spring Coats, Capes and Suits to Pelter's Fashion Shop. Every garment is of select styles, materials the best, prices less than larger cities charge. Visit the Fashion Shop for apparel that is just a little ahead.

J. B. Mahaffey received a message from his wife Saturday stating that she would return home soon. Mrs. Mahaffey had a severe attack of the influenza, and since recovering sufficiently to travel, has been visiting relatives and friends in Fort Worth and Waco. The message states she is much improved.

WHY WILSON IS POPULAR IN FRANCE
By the Associated Press
PARIS, Feb. 8.—A Frenchman, a small merchant of Paris, offers this as one explanation as the peculiarly popular demonstration with which the Parisians received President Wilson.

"We have had many rulers come to visit us in these late weeks," he said, "but crowned heads like the Kings of England, Italy and Belgium cannot dissociate themselves from their military rank. They come in wonderful uniforms with braid and decorations. Essentially their receptions had to partake of the military aspect in a dominant manner. To the salutes and cheers of the crowds these rulers had to make only the stiff military salute of acknowledgement. Naturally this is not very personal. Even a king's salute is like that of any other officer."

"But," he continued, "Your President came in civilian clothes, very plain, wholly undecorated, not even a ribbon in his lapel. His hat was constantly off. He was unhampered by uniform. He smiled, even laughed outright, in greeting the Parisians. People now and then caught his direct glance. It was personal, very human and we Parisians like that. So the infection of this personal touch went through the crowds. There you have it. It was different. "He was a little reminiscent of our late President Faure," he added. "His smile and the intimate bow are much alike."

Will There Be Enough to Go Around?

Hundreds of hungry war sufferers making way for the arrival of truck bearing food. Demand is always greater than supply in the starvation districts of Western Asia, the region which was bled and starved by Turkish German warfare above all other regions of the earth.

The campaign to raise funds for these war sufferers will be launched in the Southwest February 3 and continue for one week.

Americans Are Feeding These Children

A relief station in the Holy Land where Armenian and Syrian war orphans are being fed and clothed. Immediately after the Turks left Jerusalem, American relief workers took twenty-five homeless children in charge, gave them old-fashioned Saturday night baths, clean clothes, and something to eat. Many of them were wearing the same clothes they had on when driven from their homes two years before.

The week of February 3-10 has been set for the time when the Southwest will raise its share of the $30,000,000 which has been asked of the American people for relief of the terrible war sufferers in the Near East.

SEATTLE STRIKE GOING TO PIECES

SEVERAL UNIONS VOTE TO RETURN TO WORK. MANY DEFECTIONS FROM STRIKERS.

By the Associated Press
SEATTLE, Feb. 10.—Conservative leaders of union labor are meeting today with the general strike conference committee and are hoping to induce the committee to recommend that strikers return to work. Defections from the strikers' ranks were coming fast today. All except 400 street car men returned to work and teamsters, auto drivers, garbage collectors, four theatrical unions, barbers and several trades voted this morning to resume work.

Origin of One Proverb.
One obtains historical glimpses in proverbs. The familiar "robbing Peter to pay Paul" is said to derive its origin from the fact that in the reign of Edward VI the lands of St. Peter at Westminster were appropriated to raise money for the repair of St. Paul's.

Hard to Manage.
A man who has lately undertaken the management of a certain temperamental star was asked, during the past week, about the young woman's well-being. "How is Miss So-and-So?" ran the query. "I don't talk to her any more," was the answer. "She's under my management now."

Fish You Cannot Eat.
While there are many varieties and great quantities of curious fish in the abyssal depths of the ocean (some have been trawled up from depths of three miles or more), none of these are eatable. The limit to which fish fit for food is found in 1,000 feet.

Optimistic Thought.
Better be the best of a lowly family than the worst of a noble one.

WILL URGE FARMERS TO REDUCE COTTON ACREAGE.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 10.—Following a suggestion from Governor Robertson, J. A. Whitehurst, Prest. of the state board of agriculture, will communicate Monday with all cotton growing counties in the State urging that meetings be held for the purpose of restricting cotton acreage for the coming crop. Mr. Whitehurst points to the fact that 10,000,000 bales of last year's crop is now carried over, and that should the acreage be increased this year the cotton farmers condition would be far from favorable. Farmers will be urged to restrict their acreage.

Red Cross Notes.
Mrs. L. A. Ellison, chairman of hospital garments, is very much encouraged with the interest shown in the work room last week.

Between 75 and 100 garments were made. She hopes for even a greater number to be completed this week.

There are yet vacant chairs and vacant machines, which we hope will be filled tomorrow.

Health conditions in the country seem to be improving. We have had two calls from auxiliaries for sewing today. This will help wonderfully.

We are distressed with the seemingly little interest shown, with regard to awards. Please estimate your number of hours and get them in early. We will again ask that the work rooms be filled this week in order that we may complete our quota of sewing.—Mrs. Orville Shead, Secretary.

If you desire quality of materials and workmanship as well as style—you will find it at Burk's Style Shop. 2-10-11

Double Wedding.
A double wedding took place Sunday evening at the home of L. E. Rains. Robert G. Burden and Miss Bertha Hurley, and Cecil Bradshaw and Miss Lillie Abbott were united in marriage. Rev. C. V. Dunn officiating. After the ceremony the two couples left for Pontotoc.

Princess Chrysanthemum.
The High school chorus will give the Japanese Operetta, Princess Chrysanthemum, at the normal auditorium Feb. 21st at 8:00. The chorus has been working earnestly for several weeks and promise a rare treat. Every one urged to come. Admission 35c.

SUFFRAGE LOSES IN U.S. SENATE

RESOLUTION SUBMITTING AMENDMENT LOSES BY MARGIN OF ONE VOTE.

By the Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The House resolution for submission of a woman suffrage amendment to the federal constitution failed of adoption again in the Senate today with fifty-five votes in favor of it and twenty-nine against, one less than the necessary two-thirds.

Right Idea About Business.
The old idea that business is getting the better of your neighbor is not only "bad business," but nonsense. Business is not getting the better of but doing the best for your neighbor—and yourself. If business is not mutually profitable, it is mutually destructive. My neighbor's prosperity helps mine and mine his. When that old pernicious notion is finally exploded the millennium of business will be at hand, the era of universal peace between capital and labor.—Lord Leverhulme.

Smash Help Community.
A wealthy Englishman once said that a good home was an institution or civilizing a community, and instead of surrounding his own home by a high hedge, like many in the vicinity, he built about it an open fence, so that whoever passed, rich or poor, might enjoy the beauty of house and lawn and garden. It is a good thing for the girls of today who are to be the home makers of tomorrow, to grow up with the idea that the home owes something to the community.

Venetian Gondolas.
It was not until the end of the seventeenth century that the Venetian gondola assumed its present simplicity and somberness of color. A vain attempt has been made to introduce it in other countries, but it has apparently resisted all efforts at acclimatization.

Did You Ever Do This?

Visitors or strangers coming into an office are often embarrassed by the discourtesy of office employees who ignore their presence—or wait for some one else to inquire the visitor's errand. Any employee who happens to be near when a stranger enters should address him courteously and ask if he can take a message or be of assistance. The visitor's impression of the employer often is affected by the attitude of the employee.—Biddy Bye.

Restoring Gift Frames.

To restore gift frames take a soft brush and carefully free the frames of every particle of dust, then cover with the following mixture: The white of one egg and one-half ounce of chloride of potassa. Apply with a soft brush. Scientific American says if you desire to cleanse gift frames without tarnishing them, wash them in beer.

Seemed Like Wasted Time.

Markets for a short time during the war were not doing any delivering. Mary, age five, one night at bedtime was saying the Lord's prayer. Coming to the part "Deliver us from evil," she exclaimed: "Mother what is the use of praying for that, they won't deliver a thing in this town."

Color of Pure Copper.

The work of a Swiss investigator suggests that absolutely pure copper may have a light gray color like that of most other metals, since it is found that copper which has been ten times distilled in vacuo has only a pale rose color, while the yellow color of gold becomes much lighter under similar treatments.

Clocks That Speak.

Clocks without hands or faces are now common in Switzerland. The time-piece stands in the hall, and, when a button is pressed, by means of phonographic arrangements it calls out "Half-past five" or "Five minutes to nine," as the case may be.

MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 10.—Four armed men robbed the Liberty State Bank today of cash and securities estimated at $25,000 by bank officials.

ELEPHANT'S SHREWDNESS.

An interesting tale was told, a good many years ago, of an African elephant in the Dresden zoological gardens. When offered an apple which was in bad condition and stale, this elephant at first accepted it; but then, suddenly, as if he had realized the trick that was being played upon him, he paused, looked closely at the apple, and then handed it back to the person who had offered it. The elephant did not drop it, but waited until the man took it right out of his trunk, just as he had handed it to the animal in the first place. Surely this proves that elephants do not lack originality.—Christian Monitor.

GOOD IDEA.

Junior's father was leaving the house to attend a lodge meeting at which he was to be initiated into the order.

One Reason Girls Steal.

This bit of philosophy of a reformed girl thief was contained in an article in the People's Home Journal on the value of the probation law: "A girl can no more live without a few pleasures and pretty possessions than she can without food. Take it from me, girls don't want to steal. If they knew how to earn things for themselves, they wouldn't be bad. Some day there'll be a way found for girls to earn what they need before they get into trouble, not after. Then the whole world'll be different."
